

ARCHITECTURE OF THE BUSINESS PROGRAMME AT THE HOUSE OF THE INDIGENOUS PEOPLES

Time	5 September	6 September	7 September	8 September
Business Programme at the House of the Indigenous Peoples
10:00–11:00			10:00–11:00 Gastronomy of the Arctic, Siberia, and the Far East: How to Surprise a Picky Guest?
11:00–12:00	11:00–12:00 Effective Networking: Connections Are Everything!	11:00–12:00 Snow House: Special Aspects of the Development of the Environment of Northern Cities		11:00–12:00 Russian Arctic Style: From the Epos to the Product
12:00–13:00			11:30–12:30 Film Industry and Animation of the North and East: New Markets and Technologies	12:15–12:30 Presentation ‘Interactive Atlas of the Indigenous Peoples of the North, Siberia, and the Far East: Languages and Cultures’
13:00–14:00	13:00–14:00 Social Agenda of the Regions: New International Crossroads	13:00–14:00 Creative Potential of the North. How To Make the Arctic Regions Attractive for Life and Creativity		13:00–14:00 Tourism or a Challenge. What Attracts People to the Arctic?
14:00–15:00			13:00–14:00 From the Museum to the Creative Cluster: How Public Spaces Create a Creative Life
15:00–16:00	15:00–16:00	15:00–17:00
16:00–16:30	Revival of the Pacific Floating University: The Foundation for Training Scientific Personnel for the Arctic and the Far East	ESG Trends in the Context of Sustainable Development of Indigenous Peoples
16:30–17:00				16:30–17:50
17:00–17:30				Development of Human Resources in the Arctic Territories: Goals, Formats, and Opportunities
17:30–17:50	17:00–18:30 North–South: Ethnocultural Heritage as a Resource for Sustainable Development	17:30–20:00 Traditional Life Support Systems of Indigenous Peoples in Modern Economic Conditions. Practice, Prospects, Law
17:50–18:30
18:30–20:00

Activities at the House of the Indigenous Peoples

Presentation of the Technological Collection 'Characters of Evenki Cumulative Fairy Tales'	Master classes on the artistic processing of bones, horns, and walrus tusks and how to make national toys
Photo exhibition of the winners of the Northern Eye competition and the Children of the Arctic photo exhibition	Interactive presentation '100 Words about the Arctic'
Gastrobar with tastings based on the cuisine of the Indigenous peoples of Siberia and the Far East and 'Arctic ice cream'	Chance to send postcards with unique scenes from the life of Indigenous peoples